

Malwarebytes Education Site License

Overview

Malwarebytes is renowned for our comprehensive and thorough remediation capabilities. Today more than 60,000 businesses, schools, state, and local government agencies around the world use, trust, and recommend Malwarebytes' protection, detection, and remediation solutions.

The Malwarebytes Education Site License is designed for K-12 schools and districts, vocational schools, colleges, and universities who want the flexibility, convenience, and choice with access to multiple Malwarebytes technologies.

Introducing the Malwarebytes Education Site License

Many educational institution budgets are tight, forcing schools to struggle with legacy systems, outdated equipment, and limited staff. Even schools with healthy budgets need to put technology investments on hold due to funding changes made at the local, state, or federal level. Most schools don't have the dedicated IT budgets and resources that corporate enterprises enjoy. Yet your school will still encounter many of the same challenges and threats enterprises face every day.

The Malwarebytes Education Site License provides the best value to any educational institution that wants an easy-to-manage volume licensing program while offering the ability to deploy Malwarebytes solutions that scale with the growing needs of your school.

- Site license is based on total number of employees
- Site license includes telephone, email, and chat technical support for Malwarebytes Endpoint Protection and Incident Response
